SENIOR HONOR STUDENTS

A good scholastic record on the high school level has always been important to the individual student. With the increasing competition for available places in the freshman classes of most colleges, it is likely to become even more important. Not only are more young people graduating from high school each year, but a greater percentage of graduates are wanting to enter college.

As many colleges and universities will be unable to expand their facilities rapidly enough to take care of the increased demand, they will undoubtedly become more selective. This will tend to put more of a premium on a good high school record. Not only must the record be good, but the individual will be expected to be better educated than ever before.

The students honored on this page rank in the top ten per cent of their graduating class. They are to be congratulated for the fine work which they have done to receive this high honor. We hope that their achievements will be an inspiration to others.

Under the progressive leadership of our principal, the Student Senate has made great strides. New wastebaskets have been placed in the halls, and the constitution has been revised. Under the new constitution, members will be sent to the State Student Council Workshop. The big project of this year's Senate was the Play Night to raise money for the Foreign Exchange Student. It is the hope of Mr. Newell that the Senate will continue to grow in importance.

Karr. FRONT ROW: G. Weltzheimer, I. Brinck, S. Phipps, J. Fildey and D. Deuble, co-editors; H. Schettler, J. Locke. NOT PICTURED: A. Shaver, D. Ignat, photographer.

O-High Lights is a weekly offering of news and views of OHS, printed in the Oberlin News-Tribune. Under the co-editorship of Diane Deuble and Jane Fildey, assisted by staff photographer David Ignat, and with Miss May as faculty advisor, the staff reported student activities and discussed issues of interest to the school when it met every Monday noon to prepare the news report for the week.

Pam Gorske, treasurer; Sandra Humphrey, president; Pat Bechtel, secretary.

Noel Oakley, vice president; Sally Salo, social chairman.

FINE ARTS CLUB

The Fine Arts Club is composed of junior and senior girls with Miss Schramm as their advisor. In order to qualify for membership, a girl must have and maintain a B average. The club meets once a month in the homes of the various members. The agenda usually includes discussions or speakers.

HI-Y CLUB

The Oberlin Hi-Y Club is an organization, affiliated with the Y.M.C.A., that is open to all interested boys in the upper three grades in high school who will accept the Hi-Y platform and the code of ethics. Meetings are held twice monthly with each one having a planned worship service, a business meeting, and a program. The club is a service organization doing such things as distributing fliers and managing the coatroom at basketball games. The club participates in statewide activities such as the Youth in Government Program and club officers' training sessions at Camp Nelson Dodd. Social activities have included such things as attending a play at Karamu House, a Christmas dance, swimming, and bowling.

The Junior Red Cross is a service organization whose members and their advisor, Miss Merthe, work under the direction of Miss Mary Bryant, the Junior Red Cross director for Lorain County. Some of their activities have been packing boxes to send overseas, entertaining a group of retarded children, decorating the resthomes for Christmas, and raising money for the Red Cross Fund. Two members attend a meeting in Elyria twice a month to get and to share new service ideas. Representatives from each homeroom make up the membership of the group.

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

The Home Ec Club, under the direction of Miss Doane, meets after school on the first and third Mondays of each month. Kathy McCarthy is the president, Sally Brotherton, the vice-president, Mimi Johnson, the secretary, and Jean Schott, the treasurer.

This group of eighteen girls sponsored a Red Cross Night and assisted in making curtains for the Youth Center. At their bimonthly meetings they viewed movies of a travel-talk series at which Mrs. Simpson, Miss Merthe, and Miss Doane lectured.

The girls prepared a banquet, after which they played games. The annual picnic was at the Oberlin Reservoir where they elected officers for the coming school year.

BACK: D. Heisser, W. Streater, A. Goerlich, J. Worcester, Mr. Douglass.
MIDDLE: P. Brill, D. Cloudt, B. Dassell, R. Coe. FRONT: L. Edwards, H. Pratt, L. Lauer.

DEBATE CLUB

The Debate Club met every other Thursday evening at June Coming's home. Under the supervision of Miss Upton the club learned the procedures for debating and in the last quarter of school debated the issue of the twelve-month school system.

D. Buck, K. Owens, J. Comings, Miss Upton, B. Robinson, J. Greene, M. Johnson, J. Stephens.

OFFICE ASSISTANTS

These girls perform numerous services to assist the office staff. Some of their duties are to compile the absentee report and the lunch room lists, to conduct guests about the building, and to carry messages from the office to various teachers and students.

LIBRARY ASSISTANTS

Mary Lou Gray, Sandra Humphrey, Sue Hahn, Miss May, Judy Siglin, Myrna Wyckoff, and Marlene Elam.

CONCERT BAND

MAJORETTES

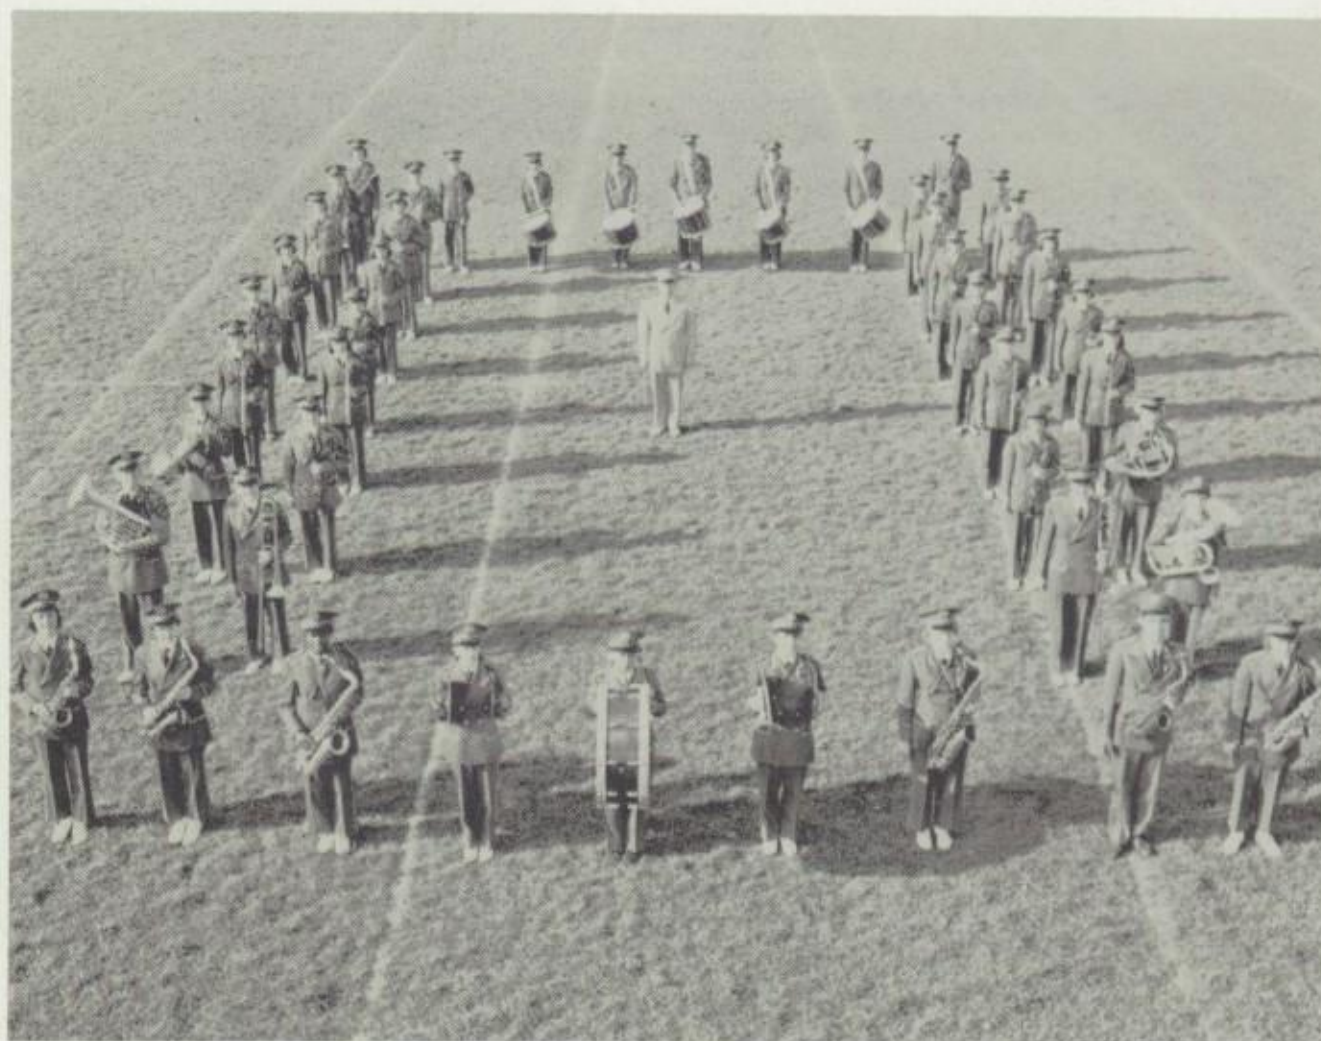

Margaret Juvenile, Lynette Means, Karen Willbond, Gail Easterday, Donna Patton, Judy Rodgers.

OBERLIN HIGH SCHOOL BAND

The Oberlin High School marching band, 48 strong, entertained the football audiences with spirited shows during the half-time intermissions. The cute majorettes led the band into intricate formations, and their baton twirling was superb.

Mr. Douglas P. Handyside, the new music director and Oberlin College graduate, came to us this year from California. Besides his work with the marching band, he also directs the pep band and the orchestra. The concert band gave a Christmas program for the school and together with the vocal groups presented a Christmas program for parents and friends. A combined program given by the concert band, orchestra, and vocal groups provided a very enjoyable April evening of music in Hall Auditorium.

MARCHING BAND

They went to music camp.

PEP BAND

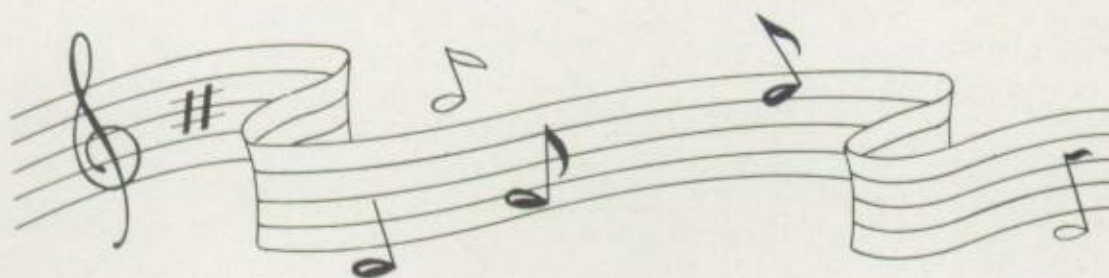

ORCHESTRA

The continually growing orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Douglas P. Handyside, has provided two very pleasant musical evenings for the public. For the first time in recent years the orchestra competed in the state orchestra contest at Columbus.

The Vocal, Band, and Orchestra Parents Club, known as the V-BOP, again supplied scholarships to summer music camps. Besides raising money for scholarships, the V-BOP purchased electric candles, which were used by the vocal groups in the Christmas program.

The Pep Band added much fun and lively music to the home basketball games and also played Mr. Handyside's new arrangement of the OHS Alma Mater.

GLEE CLUB

The Girls' Glee Club is the largest vocal group in Oberlin High School. They have provided entertainment for the student body and, also, for parents and friends. These girls entered the district music competition for the first time this year.

Mr. Herbert Henke is the director of vocal music, and evidence of his outstanding work was shown in successful music productions. Under his supervision, the vocal groups presented a beautiful Christmas program. In April the vocalists, band, and orchestra together gave a Spring Concert in Hall Auditorium which merited high praise.

ENSEMBLE

These girls who particularly enjoy singing gathered together once a week and rehearsed songs which were to be sung at various programs. Also, they sang the accompaniment to the motions of the Rhythmic Choir at the Christmas program.

MIXED CHOIR

MR. HENKE

The Mixed Choir, the pioneer group in the vocal set-up, met once a week during the noon period. Lively and entertaining songs were practiced to be presented at the Christmas and Spring concerts. All who participated had good times singing together.

BOYS' CHORUS

A group of boys who were interested in singing became members of the Boys' Chorus and enjoyed exercising their musical talents. They met once a week and were directed by Mr. Herbert Henke.

O.H.S. BASKETBALL 1958

The Oberlin High cagers had their most successful season since the 1946-47 season. The Indians were conference champs, leading second place North Olmsted by two games. Dave Harris was the leading scorer and Joe Harris was runner-up. Dave Harris was elected to the Southwest Conference first team with Joe Harris on the second team. The Indians had a league record of 12 and 2, losing only to Rocky River and North Olmsted. An overall record of 12 and 6 was made by the team during the season. The team performed well at home establishing a record of 8 and 1. Four non-league games were played, losing to Amherst by 2 points and making a good showing against Canton Lincoln and the other two teams. Under Coach Lynch's able coaching the Indians improved steadily throughout the season. Strong team spirit paid off to win several close games that Oberlin fans will surely remember. Overtime games with Westlake and Fairview provided plenty of thrills. Everyone will surely remember this season, and the school can be proud of the team's record.

CHAMPIONS IN ACTION

CHEERLEADERS

Cheerleaders were elected by the student body to serve for one year during the football and basketball seasons. They did much more than lead cheers, however. They planned all the pep rallies, making up skits and arranging for music and speakers, and made posters and announcements of the coming games. They also arranged transportation for other students to the games away from home, and took charge of roping off the cheering section. In the big tournament game with Elyria, the girls organized a big group of student supporters and made 200 megaphones, posters, and signs for their use. Toward the end of the year they suggested new procedures for electing and governing cheerleaders, a system which was adopted by the Senate. These girls have made a big contribution to the school by arousing spirit and enthusiasm for the support of our school activities.

TRACK

The 1958 Oberlin track team, monitored by Coach Fanning, and assisted by Mr. Adler and Mr. Lynch, earned for Oberlin High its first triple crown in athletics.

Sparked by its two shining stars, Jay Coniam and Joe Harris, the Oberlin Indians won two dual meets and one triple meet. The crowning glory came when the track squad was victorious over heavily-favored Rocky River to win the sought-after Southwestern Conference title. However, Rocky River had its revenge by nosing Oberlin out by four points to take the District Meet. It was at this meet, held at the Elyria High stadium, that Jay Coniam made the best official jump of his high school career and broke the track record with a jump of 12 feet, 8 inches. Joe Harris was the high-point man for the Indians, scoring in the 100, 220, broad jump, and as anchor man on the 880 relay team.

Coach Fanning was proud to be able to send the following team members to the State Track Meet in Columbus: Jay Coniam, Joe Harris, Dave Harris, Gary Cowling, and Alan Spiegelberg, in their specialties, and Charlie Butts, Tony Simmons, and Reuben Townsel to make up the 880 relay team with Joe Harris. In the pole vault, Jay Coniam placed second in the State, with a jump of twelve feet, four inches.

There's Coach Fanning, getting them ready. The reason our team was at winning so steady.

A bird? A plane? What could it be? It's Jay Coniam clearing the twelve foot three.

Shot put and discus provide some real thrills. In operation we here see Art Grills.

Adler and Cowling are outstanding racers. They made good records 'gainst other fast pacers.

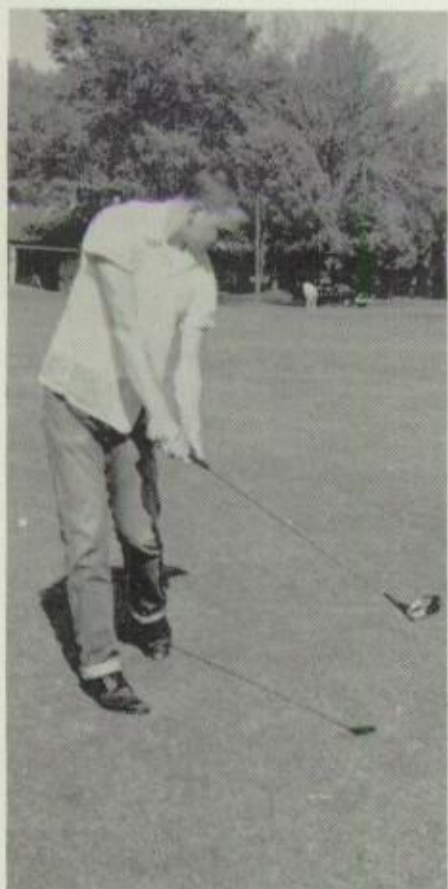

Here they go for a take-off fast, So they'll get there first instead of last.

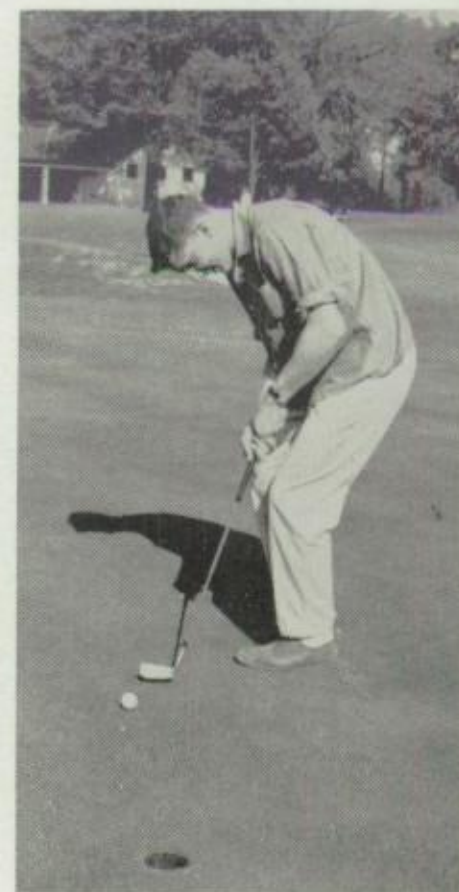

STANDING: Coach Charles Bedell, R. LeCraft, D. Cox, T. Schettler. KNEELING: D. Ignat, B. Bourne, J. Kilmer, S. Kilmer.

GOLF

The Golf Team, in its third year of existence, won one match, lost five, and placed eleventh in the 17-team district tournament held at Cleveland. Prospects for the future of Coach Charles Bedell's team are good since all members of the team will be back next year.

PLAY NIGHT

For the past four years Oberlin High School has enjoyed the presence of a foreign exchange student as a member of the student body. In order to share in the expense involved, the Student Senate sponsored a Play Night which is to become an annual affair at the high school. The members of the different classes bought tickets and entered in various contests such as ping-pong, volleyball, relay races, and other games. At the end of the evening, the points earned by the students were credited to their classes. The victorious class had its name engraved on a school plaque, and this year's proud winners were the 1958 seniors.

B. Johnson, and N. Oakley contend with H. Schettler and R. Vander Pyl.

J. Stephens and L. Fisher win the plate race.

You Can't Take It With You was a riotous comedy about the unusual Sycamore family, their problems and their romances. This play ran for two nights and was a big success.

JUNIOR-SENIOR PROM

The Prom Queen
ELMA TURNBULL

The Junior-Senior Prom was attended by eighty couples who gathered in the ballroom of the Westlake Hotel for a "Midnight on the Rhine." At 8:30 everyone sat down to a wonderful roast-beef dinner which preceded the dancing. After dinner the tables were taken down, and Billy Long's orchestra played, as couples moved to the dance floor.

At midnight the German pages rolled out the carpet for the royal procession. The royal court, carrying red roses, were escorted to the throne by junior boys. A moment of suspense was followed by the crowning of the smiling queen, Elma Turnbull. Linda Totzke, Gretchen Weltzheimer, Diane Deuble, and Noel Oakley formed her court.

About 1 A.M. everyone joined in the "Hokey-Pokey," the "Bunny Hop," and the "Mexican Hat Dance."

A breakfast was served in the Pleasant Street School cafeteria at 3 A.M. with a "Mad Daddy" supervising the entertainment. The food, consisting of ham, eggs, rolls, and cocoa, was superb. Parents of both classes were the sponsors of the breakfast.

The successful evening concluded at 4:30, as sleepy couples started homeward.

THE SENIOR CLASS OF 1958

COMMENCEMENT

Commencement week was filled with big events for the seniors. It began with a trip into Cleveland to see the Karamu production of Death of a Salesman, a rewarding experience and an evening filled with fun for everyone.

The next big event was the Baccalaureate service, with Dr. Kepler's inspiring message on how to "Live for Tomorrow." Sunday's plans also included a senior breakfast at the Stephens' home, plus a reception given by the High School P.T.A. in the First Church Undercroft. This was followed by a picnic at Mary Lou Gray's home.

The Senior Banquet was certainly one of the most enjoyable events of the week. The Inn's wonderful turkey dinner, the humorous skits given by the class, and Mrs. Hannon's parting words of advice made a memorable evening.

Finally, the big day of graduation arrived. Everything was perfect—the weather, the music by the OHS orchestra, the speech by Dr. Randle B. Thompson, and the remarks by Sandra Humphrey, representing the class. The singing of the Alma Mater brought to a beautiful close these wonderful years at Oberlin High School.

CONGRATULATIONS!

Sally Stephens and Dr. Vance

THE ROMAN BANQUET

The Roman Banquet was the highlight of the Latin students' two years of study of the language. Everyone came in authentic Roman costume. The four-course meal featured eggs and vegetable appetizers, chicken, ham, and fruit. There was plenty of "wine" and bread and honey. The program featured a Roman wedding and a drinking bout.
